5-0101. Establishment. There is hereby created and established a fire department, and if hereto created, such department is hereby continued, consisting of a chief, and such other members of said fire department as may from time to time be provided for by the governing body. Members shall be appointed in the manner provided by law.

5-0102. Supervision. The fire chief shall have the control, subject to the order and direction of the governing body, of the fire department and all fire apparatus belonging to the city; whenever any fire apparatus needs repairing said fire chief shall cause the same to be done without delay.

5-0103. Duties. The fire chief shall have the following duties and powers:

1. To keep records. The chief of the department shall cause to be kept, in books for that purpose, a full and complete record of the organization of the department, its membership, the respective positions held by the firemen in the department, vacancies, appointments and dismissals, and of all notices issued by the department, and of all its transactions, of all fires occurring in the city, and the cause thereof when ascertainable, of the time lost by firemen, and of all property placed in his charge, and all expenditures made by his order and shall keep such other books and records as shall be required in the department, and such books shall always be open to the inspection of any member of the governing body.
2. To command and control. It shall be the duty of the chief of the department to preserve order and discipline at all times in the department, and to require and force a strict compliance with the ordinances of the city relating to his department and the rules and regulations pertaining thereto. At all fires he shall have sole and absolute control and command over all persons connected with the fire department of the city.

3. To make reports. The chief of the fire department at the end of each calendar year, shall make an annual report in writing. He shall report on the condition of the fire department, the number of fires that have occurred in the city since his last report, and during the year in his annual report, and the cause of the same, so far as can be ascertained, the number of buildings destroyed or injured, the names of the owners or occupants of the same as nearly as can be ascertained, and the amount of loss upon the buildings, and other property so destroyed or injured, which report shall be filed in the office of the City Auditor.
4. To make annual inventory. The Chief of the fire department shall, during the month of June in each year, make a complete itemized list and report of all property under his charge and belonging to the city, stating its condition. He shall also report as to such new apparatus or supplies as in his judgment may be needed to properly maintain his department.
5. To prepare a budget. To prepare a budget of the whole cost and expense of providing for and maintaining the fire department of the city during the succeeding fiscal year.
6. To keep property in good condition. To keep property in good condition to see that all apparatus and property committed to his care and the several buildings or portions thereof, are kept clean and in good sanitary condition.
7. To have charge of alarm system. To have charge of alarm system of the city.
8. To control crowds at fires. The Chief of the fire department may prescribe limits in the vicinity of any fire within which no persons, except those who reside therein, firemen and policemen, and those admitted by his order.
9. To order removal of property, when. To order the removal of property, whenever it shall become necessary for the preservation of such property from fire or to prevent the spreading of fire, or to protect adjoining property.
10. To command assistance. To command assistance from persons in attendance at any fire, not members of the fire department, for the extinguishing of fires.

11. To Prescribe badge and uniform. To prescribe badge and uniform to be worn by the officers and men of the department.

5-0104. Police Powers. All members of the fire department of the City, while on active duty, shall have the powers of policemen on duty and are authorized to arrest any person or persons who shall interfere or attempt to interfere with or to hinder any member of the department in the performance of his duty.

5-0105. Unlawful to Hinder Department. It shall be unlawful for any person to prevent, interfere with, or in any manner hinder the fire department, or any member thereof, while engaged in the discharge of duty at a fire, or to disobey any lawful command of the chief or acting chief of the department.

5-0106. Right of Way. Any engine, truck or apparatus belonging to the fire department shall, going to or returning from a fire, have the right-of-way in all streets, alleys and public places over any wagon, street car, automobile or other vehicle of any kind whatever, and any person in charge of any such vehicle must stop the same when necessary to permit any engine, truck or apparatus of the Fire Department to pass without hindurance or delay.

5-0107. Driving Over Fire Hoses. No person shall drive any team, wagon, cart, street car, railroad car, steam engine, automobile, or other vehicle of any kind whatever, upon or over any hose belonging to the Fire Department while the same is laid in the streets and alleys of the city.

5-0108. False Alarms. It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to give or cause to be given any false alarm of fire, or to give or cause to be given while a fire is in progress, a second or general alarm for the same fire, or tamper with or set off any fire alarm or signal box with like intent; or tamper, meddle, or interfere with any such fire alarm box; or intentionally cut, break, deface or remove any such box, or any of the wires or supports thereof, connected with the fire alarm system; or intentionally interfere with or injure any property of any kind belonging to or used by the fire department; or hinder or delay any apparatus or equipment or vehicle belonging to the fire department.

5-0109. Taking Fire Equipment. No person shall take, receive or attempt to receive or take from the possession and control of any member of the Fire Department, any of the apparatus, tools or property belonging to said department, without the written consent of the chief of the fire department.

5-0110. Entering Fire Department. No person shall occupy any rooms in any building which are used exclusively by the fire department, or enter such rooms or handle any apparatus used by the fire department without permission.

5-0111. Service Outside Corporate Limits. Members of the fire department are authorized to go outside the corporate limits of the city for the purpose of rendering aid to other fire departments, or of extinguishing fires or rendering aid in the case of accidents. Provided, that the fire department shall not render such service outside the corporate limits excepting upon orders of the chief of the fire department, the assistant chief or presiding officer of
